ALEXANDRIA, VA. THURSDAY EVENING, APRIL 14, 1910.

PRICE 2 CENTS

That our American forests abound in plants which possess the most valuable medicinal virtues is abundantly attested by scores of the most eminent medical writers and teachers. Even the untutored Indians have discovered the usefulness of many native plants before the advent of the white race. This information, imparted freely to the whites, led the latter to continue investigations until to-day we have a rich assortment of most valuable American medicinal roots.

Dr. Pierce believes that our American forests abound in most valuable medicinal roots for the cure of most obstinate and fatal diseases. If we would properly investigate them and in the knowledge of this conviction, he points with pride to the almost marvellous cures effected by his famous Medical Diet, which has proven itself to be the most efficient stomach tonic, liver invigorator, heart tonic and regulator, and blood purifier known to medical science. Dyspepsia, or indigestion, torpid liver, functional and even valvular and other affections of the heart yield to its curative action. The reason why it cures these and many other affections, is clearly shown in a little book of extracts from the standard medical works which is mailed free to any address by Dr. E. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., at all sending request for the same.

Not less marvelous in the unparalleled cures it is constantly making of woman's many peculiar affections, weaknesses and disturbing derangements, is Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, which is simply attested by thousands of grateful testimonials contributed by grateful patients who have been cured by it of catarrhs of the bladder, painful periods, irregularities, prolapsus and other ailments, and who are now enjoying perfect health and kindred ailments, often after many other advertised medicines, and physicians had failed.

Both the above mentioned medicines are wholly made up from the roots and herbs of native medicinal roots. The processes employed in their manufacture were original with Dr. Pierce and they are carried on by skilled chemists and pharmacists with the aid of apparatus and appliances specially designed and built for this purpose. The medicines are entirely free from alcohol and all other harmful, habit-forming drugs, and full list of their ingredients is printed on each bottle wrapper.

FIGHT WITH A DOG.
In a desperate fight in the dining room of his own house Tuesday morning, Howard McCullough, of Florence, N. J., choked a bull dog to death with his bare hands to save his wife, five little children and himself. For fully five minutes the struggle went on, but McCullough never loosened his grip. The dog had been brought home by one of the children, who found it in the street. Suddenly it developed a frenzy and began snapping at the frightened children, who climbed on chairs. The father tried to brain the dog with a chair, but missed. The animal sprang at his throat and he was forced in self-defense to seize it. He got a good grip on the throat and cut off the animal's wind. It is believed that the dog had been bitten by a stray on a few days ago and was mad. Neither McCullough nor any other member of the family was bitten.

Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets assist nature in driving all impurities out of the system, insuring a free and regular condition and restoring the organs of the body to health and strength. Sold by W. F. Orelight & Co. and Richard Gibson.

HANGED AND BURNED.
After he had killed former Sheriff John R. Temple and barricaded himself in the basement of the county jail at Meridian, Miss., yesterday, Tom O'Neal, a negro, was shot by officers. O'Neal was seized by a mob of 2,000 men, hanged to a telegraph pole, and set afire. His throat was cut. Officers rescued the body and stamped out the flames, which were consuming the negro's oil-soaked clothing.

George Williams, one of the other negro prisoners, who helped O'Neal barricade the jail basement, also was shot, but not fatally injured. He was taken to a cell for safety. The mob clamored for a chance to lynch him.

The trouble started yesterday morning, when O'Neal attacked the deputy in the prison. O'Neal got the deputy's pistol from him after a desperate fight, in which Williams took part. Temple ran to aid the deputy and was shot dead. As Temple fell the two negroes rushed to the cellar, followed by eight others, and barricaded themselves. Word was sent for outside help and a crowd soon gathered and prepared to oust the negroes and lynch them. The authorities called upon O'Neal and his companions to surrender. O'Neal defied the posse. It was then decided to rush into the cellar. There was a fierce exchange of bullets, and when the smoke cleared away O'Neal lay on the floor with several bullets in his body.

The mob then attempted to get at the other prisoners, but were prevented. The situation became so strained, however, that the sheriff appealed to the governor for troops, and Company D was called out. The soldiers are patrolling the streets and the mobs have dispersed.

Your tongue is coated.
Your breath is foul.
Headaches come and go.
These symptoms show that your stomach is the trouble. To remove the cause is the first thing, and Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets will do that. Easy to take and most effective. Sold by W. F. Orelight & Co., and Richard Gibson.

COOPER PARDONED.
While the Supreme Court of Tennessee at Nashville yesterday was confirming the conviction of Col. Duncan B. Cooper for the slaying, on November 9, 1908, in a New York street, of former United States Senator E. W. Carmack, Governor Patterson wrote a full pardon for the defendant, declaring that, in his belief, Colonel Cooper was not guilty. The Supreme Court remanded for retrial the case of Robin Cooper, convicted of the same crime as his father.

The situation was tense last night because of allegations by friends of Carmack that politics entered into the case. It is probable that Robin Cooper will never be retried, it is said. Both Coopers had been sentenced to 20 years' imprisonment.

The court was divided, both in confirming the sentence of Colonel Cooper and in remanding the case of his son. It was while Chief Justice Boyd was reading a dissenting opinion in the case of Colonel Cooper that Gov. Malcolm S. Patterson pardoned the defendant, declaring in the document:

"In my opinion, neither of the defendants is guilty, and they have not had a fair and impartial trial, but were convicted contrary to the law and evidence."

Colonel Cooper was still at the Capitol when the pardon was entered in the secretary of state's office. He was at once surrounded by a crowd of friends, seeking to congratulate him. The reversal in his son's case seemed to please him to the exclusion of his own freedom.

OZAR WARNS THE PRIESTS.

A sharp communication has been addressed to the reactionary Holy Synod by the ministry of the Imperial Court, apropos of the practice of members of the clergy, from archbishop down to humble village priests, of mixing politics with religion when called upon to greet the emperor of Russia in their spiritual capacity. In his journey about Russia the emperor is customarily met at all halts by the local clergy, who celebrate a short service, and his presence is said to have been repeatedly tried by their admonitions on the proper administration of the realm, usually couched in reference to the happy days before the revolution and prayerful allusions to basel enemies of the aristocracy. The synod is now urged to see that in future priests in their greetings to the emperor make no reference to political affairs nor presume to pass upon matters concerning the temporal administration of the empire.
